

“Inspire & Empower: Teaching Toward Tomorrow”
Illinois Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages: Fall Conference 2022
October 13 - 15 • NIU Naperville Conference Center

Please note: Part of this conference will be hybrid (presented in-person and simultaneously live-streamed).

CALL for PRESENTATIONS

Selection Criteria: ICTFL is committed to offering conference sessions that are current and are presented in a professional manner. ICTFL endeavors to provide professional development that produces credit toward the renewal of teaching licenses. The committee is seeking a diverse and balanced program which will include the teaching of modern, classical, and heritage languages and cultures at all levels. Sessions addressing other professional concerns of language educators, such as equity, diversity, and inclusion, are also welcome.

Procedure: The committee will weigh the merits of all proposals and determine which are most appropriate to the program’s theme. By April 30, 2022, the status of all proposals will be acknowledged.

Successful Proposals: Up to 2 co-presenters will each receive a one-year complimentary ICTFL membership beginning July 1 of the conference year. As with ACTFL and Central States, it is the policy of this conference to require presenters to pay the registration fee and their own travel expenses. If a presenter is not registered by the regular registration deadline, the presentation may not be included in the final program.

Preferred Submission Method: Online at www.ictfl.org . However, this form will also be accepted at ICTFL, P.O. Box 64, Oglesby, IL 61348. Questions can be directed to ictfl.confcoordinator@gmail.com.

Submission Deadline: April 15, 2022.
